

Multi turf opens featuring locals

Rangitikei College officially opened its brand new synthetic multi turf on Friday; by unveiling the turf sign, which is surrounded by life size cutouts of local sports icons and pupils, representing the college's sporting codes.

The project was part one of a collaborative turf fundraising effort between Rangitikei College, Rangitikei District Council and Nga Tawa School and will be open to primary and secondary schools to use, as well as the general public.

Rangitikei College principal Tony Booker thanked the fundraising committee, led by Greg Carlyon, which raised $500,000 for the project, which sees Rangitikei College students getting the same facilities as anywhere in NZ.

Mr Booker also thanked those who gave many voluntary hours towards the project; in particular, Shane Gribbon and the Rangitikei College Trust, which gave its biggest ever donation of $200,000 towards the turf project. He also thanked council grounds manager Athol Sanson, college staffer Maree Marshall (for getting the turf up and running) and sign and graphic designer Emmanuel Yiannoutsos, as well as Marie Gurney and family for their contribution. He said the college will now get behind the Nga Tawa School hockey turf project.

Mayor Andy Watson said, "Wow, this multi turf is a window in front of the school and the greatest advert for getting students into the school."

The mayor said the turf is result of the tenacity of Greg Carlyon and his team and their commitment to a partnership with Nga Tawa. He said it also shows that the council is not just about rubbish and water, with its $200,000 grant to this part of the project.

Greg Carlyon said, "The project took 17 months, after a battle with the weather and has taken the school courts from a 1960s example to a 2017 facility."

Mayor Andy Watson and Greg Carlyon unveil the sign at the new multisport turf at Rangitikei College.

Bulls Rose Show oldest in NZ

The 140th Bulls Rose and Flower Show is officially the oldest rose show in New Zealand, according to renowned NZ judge Peter Elliot.

Mr Elliot has a long time connection to the Bulls Rose and Flower Show, as it was founded in 1877 by his great great, grandparents, Thomas and Margaret McKenzie from Poynzfield, a large former country home, near Bulls, now demolished.

Some very historic trophies are awarded at the Bulls Rose Show with names that hark back to the history of the township and district, including a shield donated by the McKenzies, the RO Dalrymple perpetual trophy and the June Hocking perpetual salver.

Chris Bassett won Queen of the Show. Peter Elliot won Champion Vase of the show and best exhibit in the open section, as well as judging sections he was not entered in. He says the standard entries was very good and, considering the awful spring weather, there were some very nice blooms. He says he was pleased to be involved as it was such a special event – being its 140 year celebration.

He says he has been participating in the Bulls show since 1986, when he moved to live in Palmerston North. He has been growing and showing roses since 1977. He has judged roses all over the world - South Africa, Canada, France, Japan, USA and UK. “My hobby has taken me all around the world but roses give such great pleasure.”

The cut flower, baking and floral art sections were also a feature of the 140th show.

Fire display for everyone

The Taihape Volunteer Fire Brigade held an open day on Sunday, attracting a number of families and many youngsters who had great fun dressing in firefighters’ gear and helmets; seeing how firefighters work and they also made great use of the bouncy castle set up in the station.

Volunteer Support Officer, Colin Leighton from Whanganui said it was great to see families taking an interest in what our firefighters do.

“Our volunteers firefighters do a great job and are a good bunch. However, we are short of day support people. Most of our current volunteers are self employed and are only readily available at night.

“It’s not just a male thing. Women should consider volunteering as well. All recruits are fully trained and learn new skills such as first aid. It’s not tough - but fairly interesting.”

For more information, call at the fire station on Monday evenings or give Colin Leighton a call on 027 442 8433.

The Taihape Fire Brigade’s open day included demonstrations of how the pneumatic ‘jaws of life’ and spreader are operated. Photo by Terry Karatau.

Blue Christmas in Taihape

This time of year, building up to Christmas, can be a difficult time for many people, particularly those facing this time with a loved one not present with them for the first time, because of death, or some other reason. The bright lights, carols heard everywhere, all the family gatherings, can all rub salt into the wound of loss and grief and loneliness. Some may be away from family, others just want to acknowledge the reason for this season without all the glitz.

St Margaret's Anglican Church, Taihape is holding a short half-hour time of reflection for anyone who feels the need to just be still for a few minutes, to remember their loved one in a sacred place, out of the hustle and bustle of Christmas.

Feel free to come. If you don't care for the usual type of Christmas but want to celebrate it quietly, feel free to come.

Those of any faith, or no faith, are welcome to join us at St Margaret's Anglican Church at 6pm on 5 December.

BNZ closure reaction

BNZ in Marton is due to close on Friday. It is a very unpopular move and some account holders have told this newspaper that they intend to change banks in an effort to strengthen other banks like ANZ and Westpac, that still support Marton and district.

As always, the BNZ has not considered account holders with no internet or a weak signal, in rural areas. It means some rural people could have to travel 70km or more, to find a BNZ. The closest to Hunterville area is Taihape and to Marton is Feilding (while they last).

White Ribbon bikers visiting Marton

'Between 30-40 White Ribbon bikers are arriving in Marton on Thursday November 23, at the Marton Memorial Hall and everyone is welcome to go along from 9.30am onwards. The bikers travel through the country stop at different towns each year. It's Marton's turn this year.

Everyone's invited to come along and meet the bikers, who have all taken the white ribbon pledge against violence. They ride on to Foxton and Levin afterwards.

Thankful organisers says Marton New World has sponsored bread and ANZCO has sponsored all the meat for a barbecue. They want to thank everyone who has put up posters and advertised as well as schools and RDC.

When the throaty roar of dozens of motorbikes approaches your town get ready to be surprised.

The riders are generally a rugged, tough looking crew but tougher still is the message they bring with them. These are the White Ribbon Riders on tour through the lower North Island country and the message they bring is about respect and stopping violence towards women.

White Ribbon Rider and ambassador Takurua Tawera says the starting point for putting things right is when fathers and other men help boys and young men develop respectful behavior in their relationships.

"All the stats show fathers are more likely to talk to their daughters about the risks of sexual violence and consent. They are far less likely to talk to their sons about respectful relationships and respectful sexual relationships. It is those ongoing talks that strengthen behaviour," says Mr Tawera.

"People who don't think this is an important message may be part of the problem. We have seen in recent times high profile Hollywood producers in the spotlight for violent and abusive sexual behaviour towards women. It happens at all levels of society."

Mr Tawera says men need to step outside the stereotyped thinking that reinforces negative behaviour. He says developing values and empathy gives men better relationships, happiness and health.

So the message is out there: we need to be talking with our sons and daughters to help them understand the value of respectful, non-violent relationships.

The White Ribbon lower North Island ride will visit 11 schools along the way, engaging with both primary and secondary students to encourage respectful relationships among young people. Twelve community market days, activities, meetings and events, organized by non-violence and other agencies which aim to strengthen families, are also on the itinerary.

There is an open invitation to come along to the White Ribbon event in Marton. www.whiteribbon.org.nz

Rangitikei Country Quilters 20th Birthday Celebrations

Pearls, fascinators and high heels were the order of the day when over 30 members of Rangitikei Country Quilters met recently, to celebrate the club's 20th birthday. Members gathered at the Arts and Crafts Centre in Marton and set off on a mystery tour of the Rangitikei, before arriving at the former Victory Hall, now a private home just outside Turakina, for high tea. The club committee had prepared an array of delicious sandwiches, cakes and savouries which were consumed with lots of tea, coffee and chat. Club archivist Joyce Smith prepared a display of newsletters, photos and other items relating to the club's history. This generated a lot of memories of trips, exhibitions, retreats and classes that members have enjoyed over the years. The appropriately decorated birthday cake was cut by Sue McClelland and Karen Farquhar, founding members of the club.

The Rangitikei Country Quilters meet again this Saturday November 18 at the Marton Arts and Crafts Centre at 1.30pm. Speaker this month is Annette Blair from Foxton Beach. Annette is multi-talented, being an artist, patch worker and currently painting miniatures, so it is sure to be an interesting talk. A reminder to members taking part in the 'Secret Sister' swap that the boxes are due for delivery at this meeting and next month is hand-in time for Quilt in a Box. We will also have our regular activities. We welcome new members.

Co-presidents Jean Fuldseth and Anne Mimmack drink tea to Rangitikei Country Quilters 20th anniversary.

Marton Music Society

Paul Ellery and cellist Marta Barham perform on Sunday.

Cello and vocals will feature in the Marton Music Society's final concert of the year which is on this Sunday in the Friendship Hall, Morris St, November 19 at 2pm.

Guest cellist is Marta Barham, recently arrived mathematics teacher at Nga Tawa. She will be performing part of a Bach Suite for solo cello as well as the first movement of the Beethoven Cello Sonata Opus 5. Her accompanist will be Paul Ellery, the retiring head of Music at Nga Tawa. Paul has a lifetime of experience as an accompanist and this will be the last chance to hear him perform before he returns to Hamilton. He has been a great contributor to the musical life of Marton. The Wanganui vocalists, performing for this concert, are both students of Ruth Evans. Helen Dougherty will be performing the beautiful "Fischerweise" by Schubert and a lullaby by Menotti, and Eleanor Foster will be singing a Mozart aria from "The Marriage of Figaro" as well as a work by Purcell. Helen and Eleanor will also perform two Christmas duets together. The concert will finish with sing-a-long Christmas carols, followed by a Christmassy afternoon tea.

Admission is by donation and everyone is welcome.

Marton Friendship Club

We meet at Morris St every Friday at 2pm, hall open 1pm. Raffles won by Wendy, Jennifer, Betty, Jean T and Sheila. Entertainers were Gillian and Allan Bailey-a very popular duo with our club. Songs like Travelling Light, Honky Tonk, Angels, Coal Miner's Daughter, so many dance tunes and the members up dancing to the beat. An enjoyable afternoon with wonderful entertainers with great voices. Our club attendance is still very good. Visitors are always welcome and membership is still increasing. This week's entertainment will be King's quartet boys choir from Wanganui. This group is brand new for us, so do come along. See you Friday November 17.

Sixteen year old Taihape Area School student Erika Elers (pictured) has been karate training for about 13 years. She says her parents had a karate training school in Palmerston North and so she became involved at three years old. She earned her first black belt at 11 years old and gained her second black belt, with adults, at 13 years old. "I do about four competitions a year so, over time, I have done more than I can remember," Erika said. Erika is now a Karate youth world champion, in the teenage section, having beaten 10 opponents, at the world champs in Japan at the end of July. She is now training for the next competition which could be in the senior section next year.

Black Dog donations go to worthy recipients

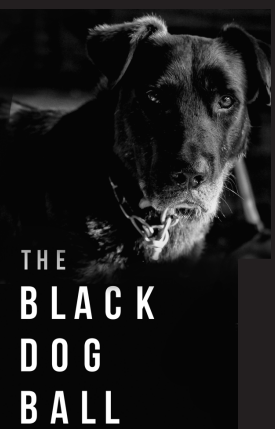

Black Dog Ball organisers Trish and Alex Pearce handed over a donation from the event they organised at Awapani Function Centre on 14 October which raised $40,000.

The pair donated money raised at the Black Dog Ball to organisations which support mental health such as the Marton Counselling Centre, based in High St, which offers confidential counselling and family therapy and the Rural Family Trust which has an emphasis on maintaining the wellbeing of families in rural NZ. A donation was also made to Mike King for his Key to Life tour for mental health awareness in schools.

Pictured from left: Anna Sophia, Marton Counselling Centre director, Alex and Trish Pearce and counsellor Margaret Millard, chair of the Rural Family Trust; The valuable donations were very well received by two very important and worthy organisations.

The Black Dog Ball organising committee, wish to thank everyone who supported the Black Dog Ball. It resulted in $40,000 being raised and donated in equal parts to the Manawatu and Rangitikei Rural Families Support Trust, Marton Counselling Centre and Mike King's 'Key to Life Charity', for their upcoming tour of schools. Your enthusiasm and generosity is hugely appreciated.

Thanks to the set up and clean up crews and everyone who attended and those who bought auction items. Many folk donated a huge range of things from flowers, product, auction experiences and money.

South Rangitikei Schools' Community of Learning/Kāhui Ako Update

Term 4 is flying by!

The last formal get together of the 10 schools and their staff before the Christmas break is on Monday 4th December. At this get together we will work together to ensure we will begin 2018 with a shared understanding of our vision which is:

A community that promotes collaboration through Manaakitanga and Whānaungatanga to engage and empower learners.

We will introduce the within school teachers and then celebrate the relationship building that has taken place between the 10 kura over the past 12 months. We have come a long way. It is so amazing watching them share best practice, ideas, resources and their own learning journeys. There is a genuine commitment to improving outcomes for all tamariki across the Rangitikei.

The development of a stewardship group took an unexpected turn when the group that gathered last week made the decision to continue to trust the journey the 10 principals engaged in when they formed the Kāhui Ako.

The message from the Board members present was to honour that trust and support their own schools to continue to develop the Community of Learning relationship.

Furthermore, the Boards asked if they could be included in some of the principals' hui in order to get a sense of their model of trust and to provide them with the reassurance they need to support our Kāhui Ako. We are delighted to have a plan to bring all ten Boards of Trustees and their leaderships teams together.

HAWKESTONE GOLF CLUB

Saturday 11; golf warehouse. Interclub and Christmas cheer visit to Patea. The day was played in rather unfamiliar, windy conditions, for Hawkestone members, who still managed to pull a few good scores together, with the men taking out the Alex Bergen memorial trophy by just .1 of a point. The ladies weren’t as fortunate, with the result going in favour of the Patea woman. Members also managed to successfully win a number prizes up for grabs in the hamper competition. We look forward to next week, when Patea pays us a return visit, to compete, along with other visitors, in our annual Christmas cheer event. Coming events: Tuesday golfers’ 18 holes - 9am & 9 holes - 10am tee off. Saturday 18th Hawkestone Christmas cheer - 11.30am, shotgun start. Enquiries & registrations to Grant. Visitors and casual golfers play 9 or 18 holes for only $10. New members pay only $250 to join. All welcome. Contact Grant; 0210 572 931.

MARTON 9 HOLE GOLF

A great start for our ACA summer series with 34 players turning out on a wonderful sunny day. Results were: 1st division: 1st Brian Willis 24, 2nd Jill Yortt 21, Brian Shaw 21 c/b. 2nd division: 1st Richard Peirce 27, 2nd Dave McDougall 23, 3rd Barry Florence 21 c/b. 3rd division: 1st Barb Crawford 20, 2nd Marion MacPhee 20 c/b, 3rd Tom Trotter 19. Two's: Brian Short. Lucky card winner: Brian Short. Raffle winner: Beryl Higgie. Next week’s medal round has starters: Brian Willis & Mike Morland. Cards: Bob Barrett & Marion MacPhee. Kitchen: Adrian Penning.

TAIHAPE GOLF

The course has dried out considerably and, with plenty of run, the longer handicappers are starting to dominate the results. The greens have firmed up, with full approach shots ending up in the back sector. As most pin placements were in the front of the green, all players had to play just short of the green to be rewarded. As it was, Denise Millner was in superb form, with an excellent 83 off the stick, for 44 points. Her round included 9 pars. Millner was too good for her male counterparts who were 6 shots adrift. These included Kerry Wells, JJ Walker, Peter Valentine, Gary (birthday boy) Cleaver and Denis Robertson. Wells had 12 pars and a birdie on the 16th. At 7 over the card, it was uncharacteristic that 6 of the dropped shots were on the par fives. JJ Walker continued his good run and has an appointment with the handicapper this week. Walker played the longer holes well, as well as most of the par 3’s. Peter Valentine was steady throughout, with the highlight being a short putt for birdie on the 9th. His accuracy off the tee was William Tell like. Gary Cleaver celebrated his birthday with the customary blank cheque in the 19th, as he had 11 pars, in a good consistent display. Denis Robertson had the flat stick working on all cylinders, slotting numerous 20 foot putts, to easily account for Matt Thomas in the Joblin. On 36, were Duane Dick, Ken Cribb and Dave Pollard, with his 35, Richard Millner didn’t get his name mentioned, with most of the field scoring in the 32 – 34 range. Those interested in heading to Hawkestone on Saturday, are to meet at 10am, with tee off at 11.30am; for a shotgun start.

MARTON SARACENS PREMIER 1 CRICKET

While the stable weather allowed cricket to get underway for the summer at Centennial Park, Matt Burke Engineering Marton Saracens Premiers were hampered by a long list of players injured, or unavailable. T20 cricket however, has become the Saracens forte and the team is always determined to maintain its excellent record in this format. Especially against Wanganui Marist. Saracens batted first and made their way to 35, in the seventh over, but also lost their second and third wickets in this over. Joshua Trillo and Thomas Westwood however, got themselves in and played brilliant shots all around the park. The pair put on a tremendous 100 run partnership in ten overs. Westood was dismissed in the 18th over, for 47 and Trillo in the 19th over, for 71. Saracens P1 debutant Freddie Lane scored 5 runs, off the final ball of the innings. Defending 156 was always do-able, but was going to be a challenge for a largely young and inexperienced bowling attack. This was especially so, when another injury lead to a bowler leaving the field. Senior bowler Josh Trillo made a good start, taking a wicket in the first over. The remaining bowlers all struggled with their first over. All four of them however, should be credited for managing to pull things back later in their spells. At 77-3 after 8 overs, Marist was not out of the game. Youngster Robert Daines found a decent line and length to finish with 1-29. The ever determined Balam Singh (of Aamond Indian Restaurant) finished with 2-29. Good line and length bowling left Marist needing 24 off the last over. Saracens came out on top. The Alf Downs & Sons player of the day award was shared between; Josh Trillo, Thomas Westwood and Balam Singh.

MARTON SARACENS PREMIER 2 CRICKET

Central ITM Saracens travelled to Wanganui Collegiate on Saturday to take on the strong Collegiate 1st eleven in the T20 competition. Collegiate won the toss and elected to bat on a well-prepared wicket that looked full of runs. A rapid first wicket partnership of 43 set the base for the school team and they went on to compile 172 for 4 after their 20 overs. Phil Galpin claimed 2 wickets in the final over but was expensive, finishing with 2 for 54 from his 4 overs. Mark Transom was the most economical Saracens bowler, taking 1 for 21 from 4 overs. Dave Woolston took 1 for 24 from his 4 overs, Allan Pond 0 for 18 from 3, Jayden Lane 0 for 36 from 4 and Warren Pyke went for 10 in his solitary over. Galpin, Transom and Vern Kohi held catches in the field. After an opening partnership of 25 between Woolston (11) and Kohi (7), in the Saracens reply, wickets fell regularly and runs were hard to come by against the accurate, penetrative Collegiate attack. At the end of the 20 overs, the score was 83 for 8. Pond made 1, Transom top-scored with 26, Mike Maher contributed 5, Mike Jacobs and Phil Galpin 0 and Ronan Spence 1. The not out batsmen were Andrew Spence 9 and Lane 7. Mark Transom was the Harvey & Calkin Glass player of the day. This week sees Central ITM Saracens at home to Wanganui United, in the 40 over competition.

BULLS BOWLING CLUB

Wow, what an awesome bowler Pat Hartley is. Won the ladies’ handicap singles - also picked for the centre representative, under five year player, in Whanganui. Congratulations Pat. The ladies won second division interclub, with Terrace End runner up. A great achievement and congratulations to all the team. The men’s division 3 interclub ended with a well-deserved second place. Division two has three teams to play; one more day to go and is holding third (two points shy of the top two teams) with 20 points, from the two days play so far. The ladies v the men, scheduled to play last Sunday, was cancelled; due to the lack of women. Obviously, too much on at this time of year. Will be re-scheduled soon - so keep practising. This weekend sees the start of the over 65’s any gender pairs, so let’s hope the weather is kind. The home

Acknowledgement

BOERBOOM Ryan Jason

Pam, Peter, Aidan, Liam, Shauna and all Ryan's siblings and their families wish to express our heartfelt thanks to family, friends and colleagues who have supported us in so many ways over this sad time. The numerous phone calls, visits, cards messages, tributes, baking and flowers are so appreciated. We were overwhelmed by the large attendance at the service to farewell Ryan.

Our thanks must go to all who cared for Ryan at Palmerston North Hospital, Arohanui Hospital, Marton District nurses, Stewart St Surgery and Marton Pharmacy. To Mike Dalley of Beauchamps and our Minister Robert McLay - thank you for your help and guidance through this difficult time. A special mention must be made of Felix, Rae and their team (the Marton Cancer Society) and the wonderful support for Ryan from the businesses and people of Marton. We are so grateful. As we are so overwhelmed, please accept this as our personal acknowledgement to each and every one of you.

*To our beloved Ryan;
If love could have saved you, then you would have lived forever xxxx*

In Memorium

HUNT Vivien

On the 18th November 2016 we lost a wonderful lady, a loving wife, a wonderful mother and a fantastic nana. Our memory of her will live on forever. From the greatest to the smallest, we will remember and treasure those memories. The greatest being the times spent with our family. The smallest and very helpful, are her handwritten labels on the S/R and plain flour and not forgetting the most helpful, how to set the time on the stove and microwave! PRICELESS. You are always in our thoughts; everyday! Love forever and always, Laurie, Laurence, Mandy, Stuart, Cait, Sheryn, Bones and all of your adoring grandchildren.

REID Irene

09/12/1936 - 14/11/2009
Eight years ago we lost a beloved wife, mother and sister. Just a prayer from those who love you. Just a memory ever true in our hearts, you will love forever because we thought the world of you. Bill, Sandra, William, Wendy, Elizabeth, Susan and Charles Evans.
